

The Lang Sisters Band is based in the Raleigh, NC area and perform throughout the southeastern United States. The band recently took 2nd place in the Got To Be NC Festival Bluegrass Band competition, sponsored by the NC State Fair. The Lang Sisters borrow from the folk, gospel, and bluegrass traditions to create a fresh acoustic sound all their own. They have performed throughout the southeast, sharing the stage with seasoned professionals who continue to inspire and mentor them.

Song of the Mountains Lincoln Theatre Television PBS Taping – 07/08/2017

Jessica, age 16 is a talented singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist whose passion for music excellence is undeniable. She has won multiple guitar, vocal and ensemble performance awards at competitions throughout NC and Virginia. She also plays mandolin and is a member of the elite IBMA Kids on Bluegrass program, performing at various IBMA stages throughout the annual festival in Raleigh. Jessie also sings and plays lead guitar for the Carolina PineCones, plays jazz guitar with her high school band, and also plays contemporary Christian music.

Chloe, age 20 is a strong rhythm player and vocalist for the duet. Fascinated by the history of traditional music with a special interest in arts education, she served as a summer camp counselor and teacher at JAM summer music camps and PineCone music camps. She is currently attending Appalachian State University. Chloe also plays piano, percussion, and has been a member of Meredith College's Chorale, a premiere vocal performing ensemble.

The Lang Sisters regularly perform with other musicians and assemble various ensembles to meet the needs of their clients and performing venues.

In June 2017 they were the featured performers at the NC Museum of History: Music of the Carolinas series sponsored by PineCone. In July 2017, they performed on the televised PBS series Song of the Mountains in Marion, Virginia. For more information, please see:

www.thelangsisters.com

www.facebook.com/thelangsisters.com

www.instagram.com/thelangsisters

The Lang Sisters Band

The Lang Sisters have performed at these wonderful venues:

- Song of the Mountains, - Marion, VA
- WoodSongs Dalton Concert Series, Dalton, GA
- PineCone Music of the Carolinas Series– Daniels Auditorium, Raleigh, NC
- IBMA, Raleigh NC
- Got to be NC Festival – Bluegrass Band Competition
- North Carolina State Fair – Heritage Circle
- RenoFest Bluegrass Band Competition Hartsville, SC
- Festival for the Eno – Durham, NC
- City of Raleigh First Night – Daniels Auditorium, NC Museum of History
- City of Raleigh Artsposure Celebration
- PineCone Midtown Bluegrass Series, Raleigh, NC
- Pickin' in the Plaza – Raleigh, NC
- Wake Weekly Best of the Best – Wake Forest, NC
- MerleFest Austin Stage, Wilkesboro, NC
- RDU Airport – First Friday Series
- RDU Airport – Salute to Bluegrass Music Series
- Valdese Festival of Faith Arts Program
- Wake Forest Meet in the Street
- Wake Forest Six Sundays in Spring
- Wake Forest Friday Arts After Hours
- Wake Forest Historic Home Tours
- City of Pittsboro Annual Fall Festival
- The Earl Scruggs Center, Shelby, NC
- American Roots Bluegrass Festival, Greensboro, NC
- Hot Nuts & Ciders, Raleigh City Farm
- Sacred Grounds Coffee House, Durham, NC
- Sola Coffee Café, Raleigh, NC
- The Vollmer Farm, Bunn, NC
- Christmas Open House, Hickory Mountain Antiques & Country Store, Pittsboro, NC
- Ridgeway Opry House, Norlina, NC
- Farmers' Alliance, Siler City, NC
- Silk Hope Labor Day Festival, Silk Hope, NC
- The Plates Neighborhood Kitchen, Raleigh, NC
- The Lodge, Wake Forest, NC
- A Bluegrass Kinda of Christmas, Raleigh, NC

“The traditions of bluegrass music are best handed down person to person, one generation to the next. Chloe Lang and her sister, Jessica, are part of the next generation of bluegrass musicians eagerly learning everything being passed to them.”

- Carol Tabor, The Wake Weekly, The Future of Bluegrass Lies with Two Sisters (Dec 2014)

“Chloe and Jessica are dedicated young musicians who are always in search for more music education opportunities. They have been an active and enthusiastic participant in PineCone’s relatively new Youth Council, leading by example and being role models for our younger members. They have been actively involved with the Chatham County Junior Appalachian Musicians group – they dedicate so much time and energy to their musical pursuits, and it has been such a pleasure to see them grow over the years. We are excited to see where their music will take them in the future, and we are proud to have played a role in their music education.”

- William Lewis, PineCone, the Piedmont Council of Traditional Music \(2016\)

“...The duo keeps it both polished and fresh. They blend old traditionals – Uncloudy Day segues into I'll Fly Away, the harmonies seamless – and then hang around after to chat with new fans.”

- Tracy Davis, Walter Magazine, Raleighites - Girl Power \(March 2016\)

“With big hearts and lots of talent, this duo carries the traditional music of North Carolina into the 21st Century”

- Eno River Association presents 37th annual Festival for the Eno. Saturday, July 2nd at the River Stage \(2016\)

Upcoming Venues

- 9/8/17 Denton FarmPark Fest, Denton, NC
- 9/30/17 IBMA JAM Stage, Raleigh, NC
- 10/9/2017 Private Event, Raleigh Convention Center
- 10/15/2017 NC State Fair Heritage Circle (9:30-5:30 PM)
- 12/3/17 Cameron Village Public Library
- April 28, 2018 – MerleFest